

WD 304 Figures and Exercises

1. The figures asked for in Western Dressage tests are: the circles, the serpentines and the figure eights.
 - a. Circle. The circle is a round figure, which varies in size according to the requirements of each test. The diameter of a circle is specified in each test.

Basic Circle in the 20m x 60m (large) court.

Reprinted with permission of Elaine Ward, author "On the Basics: The Western Style Dressage Manual"

Basic Circles in the 20m x 40m (small) court.